"God delights in taking people of different backgrounds with different talents And abilities and imparting to them gifts for service. The body of Christ is not a homogenous group for people who are all alike. It is not a country club with people of the same background who all think the same. It is a dynamic movement of people of different gifts, united in the love for Christ and for Scripture, and who are committed to sharing His love and truth with the world"

NEWS

Reunited! ...and oh, what a feeling!

Ontario Conference's First-Ever Virtual Day of Worship Reaches 22K+ Globally

When Ontario Conference's directors and administrators first envisioned July 18's Virtual Day of Worship, they had modest expectations. It would be nice, they figured, if churches and members from across the province were able to worship together after months of separation. They hoped the program would encourage members in a year in which the quinquennial General Conference Session of Seventh-day
