Reunited! ...and oh, what a feeling!

Ontario Conference's First-Ever Virtual Day of Worship Reaches 22K+ Globally

When Ontario Conference's directors and administrators first envisioned July 18's Virtual Day of Worship, they had modest expectations. It would be nice, they figured, if churches and members from across the province were able to worship together after months of separation. They hoped the program would encourage members in a year in which the quinquennial General Conference Session of Seventh-day
